

PUT YOUR “BRAND” IN THEIR HANDS with fun, free attractive postcards!

What’s said about free postcard advertising:

“ There is not a lot of advertising around that people actually enjoy—free postcards are one of the rare ones. ”

“ It’s a take-away, not a give-away. Each card is selected voluntarily and with enthusiasm. ”

“ Anytime you offer customers something at no cost, there’s always an interest, and any time you get your brand name and picture in consumers’ hands, you benefit. ”

“ Easily elevate your levels of brand exposure with walk-by traffic and pass-along rates. ”
